Piedmont Convocation.

The 41st semi-annual meeting of this convocation took place at Trinity church, Manasas, Prince William county, on Tuesday, the 3rd instant, continuing in session most of the week. There was a larger attendance of members than usual. Much business of importance was transacted, among which may be noted the adoption of a constitution and by laws. The reports from the parishes within the bounds of convocation were on the whole encouraging. Mission work is carried on at various points by the parish ministers, throughout the year, supplemented by associations or continuous services held for a week or more during the sum-mer and fall. Seventeen rectories are now reported to a membership of eighteen cler-gymen. We scarcely think any other con-vocation can make a better showing in this respect. It is hoped that a new church will soon be built at Round Hill, Loudoun coun ty, where the Rev. S. S. Ware has a promis-ing field of labor. Another church is nearly finished in the vicinity of Burke's Station Fairfax county, though the work is at pre-sent delayed for the lack of funds. In the meantime services are held in a public school house where a Sunday school is a's:

kept up from Easter to Christmas. During the session of convocation the fol-lowing preamble and resolutions, for presentation at the Diocesan Council to be held in Alexandria, were unanimously adopted, receiving the signature of all the member

Whereas a proposition to change the name of the Protestant Episcopal Church was made in the last General Convention and received much favor, last General Convention and received much lavor, gaining a large allirmative vote; and whereas this movement to change the name of our Church was initiated and primarily urged by men who disparage the Reformation, and have no sympathy with Protestantism, and who, in consistency, must advocate further changes in the Book of Common Prayer, with which, as it now stands, they do not hesitate to express dissati faction; therefore therefore,

Resolved, That we are determined not to abandon those Protestant principles which are embedied in our Prayer Book, and which are, as we believe, taught in the boly scriptures, and that we cling to the name by which these principles are distinctly declared.
Resolved, That as it is a change in the Prayer Book itself, we regard the alteration proposed as outside the legitimate powers of the General Convention, and we consider it as little, if at all short of revolution, tending to involve the Church in discord and strife and to unsettle the titles to much of our church property.
Resolved, finally, That we hereby declare our unalterable and unyielding opposition to the change

unalterable and unyielding opposition to the change thus proposed, and we aftirm that we will not, as a diocese, give our assent to the omission of the word "Protestant" any more than of the word "Episcopal" from the name of our Church or the title of our Prayer Book. WHIPPED BY A MOB .- Daleville, Ind., is ablaze with excitement on account of one Wilbur Black being taken from his home by masked men one night last week, stripped and whipped, and ordered to leave. Black came to Daleville from Huston, Ohio, two years ago. Before leaving there he married his aunt, who was the mother of six children, ranging in age from 2 to 10 years. About two weeks ago a six-year-old boy died, and notwithstanding the murmurs of the neighbors it was given out that the child died of natural causes. Last Wednesday a four-your old girl died, and the neighbors investigated. Black and his wife objected, but could not prevent the fact being sept4 J.T. CREIGHTON & SON. two years ago. Before leaving there he jected, but could not prevent the fact being made public that the body of the dead child was cut and bruised in a horrible manner from fearful beatings. An examination of the living children showed their bodies cov-ered with gashes, cuts, scars, and bruises caused by whippings by the stepfather. A meeting of citizens was quietly called, and a committee of forty appointed to wait on Black. At 11 o'clock at night he was seized, led to a piece of timber land, stripped to the skin, and whipped till be could scarcely stand. Blood ran from not less than fifty wounds on the man's back, caused by the application of hickory switches. When the whipping was over he was told to skip and in stock and for sale by

The husband was offered $10 000 to release the girl, but refused the offer. The young lady is very beautiful, and has always been remarkable for her proud and exclusive disposition. The wedding occurred on the third visit to the medium, who took her to Camden to have the marriage ceremony performed. Nine ministers were applied to before one could be found willing to marry them because of the great contrast in the appearance of the couple. The busband is repulsive to hideousness; no hair, weak eyed, and no roof to his mouth, and is unable to articulate intelligibly. The par ents of the girl are almost crazed with grief at her strange infatuation.
